With a sharp eye for building trust, empathy, and creativity, Meridith equips entrepreneurs, leaders, and teams to think fast, speak boldly, and own their space. Whether it's tech giants like Amazon AWS or game-changing organizations like Merck and Panasonic, her clients walk away not just confident—they leave unforgettable.

And as a creator with 100K+ followers on TikTok, Meridith knows how to engage audiences in the most competitive attention economy. Her ability to inspire and captivate across platforms reflects the same skills she brings to the stage, making her the go-to expert for turning presentations into standing ovations.
